

Summer Camp at Hanley Farm

July 19 through July 23
9 am to 3:30 pm
Children ages 6 to 11

Send your children on a trip through time at the summer camp at Hanley Farm! Campers will explore different aspects of the history of the Rogue Valley including the traditions of local Native American Tribes, pioneer farm life, gold mining, and life on the Oregon Trail.

Hands-on activities include pottery making... Photography... traditional cooking and food preparation... Hiking...gold panning.... traditional songs and games... “meeting” famous locals such as Peter Britt, Carrie Beekman and James Poole...day trip into Jacksonville for a woodland hike... exploration of the Jacksonville Children’s Museum... a visit to the pioneer cemetery and more.

Fees are $180 for the week for one child, and $165 for a second child. Price includes all craft and activity materials; campers are asked to bring their own lunch.

Please contact 541-899-8123 ext 225 or educate@sohs.org to sign up or for more information. Space is limited and will be awarded on a first come, first served basis.

Hanley Farm is located at 1053 Hanley Rd (Hwy 238) between Jacksonville and Central Point.